

Central Arkansas Chapter American Guild of Organists

The Clarion
August 2013

Mission Statement

The mission of the American Guild of Organists is to enrich lives through organ and choral music. To achieve this, we encourage excellence in the performance of organ and choral music; inspire, educate, and offer certification for organists and choral conductors; provide networking, fellowship, and mutual support; nurture future generations of organists; promote the organ in its historic and evolving roles; and engage wider audiences with organ and choral music.

From the Dean

Hello All,

I hope you are having a wonderful summer and are either anticipating a vacation, or are remembering one just completed. Many of us have a slightly-easier or at least somewhat different schedule during the summer months; enjoy the bit of relaxation this can bring.

However, one bit of business we (all of us) must take care of is membership renewal. Please, please send yours in now. If your church handles this for you, just give the appropriate person your renewal form. If you do it for yourself, please just get it in.

To print a membership form, go to: www.cacago.org, click on "2013 Membership Form" button, and follow the directions. The membership year is July 1 – June 30, so we are already running late.

On another matter, Gini Freemyer is heading up the ad sales for our 2013-14 yearbook; please consider contacting her to purchase an ad to support our programs.

And speaking of programs, Wayne has been hard at work on a really super line-up of programs. That's the good news. The bad news is that we need money to support these programs. Please consider a gift to CACAGO (you can use that handy-dandy membership form) to support our chapter and the programs we offer.

And for the rest of the summer: stay cool, recharge mentally and physically, and have a safe and happy summer. Hope to see you in September.

Betty Cohen, Dean

The September Clarion will be published on Monday, September 2.
It will include the program calendar and other details for the upcoming year.

Thank You!
